Notice of Lodging of Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act Notice is hereby given that on May 5, 2008, a proposed consent decree in United States v. Daniel Rapier et al., Civil Action No. 06cv1686, was lodged with the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana. In this cost recovery action brought pursuant to the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. 9607, the United States sought recovery of unreimbursed past response costs and prejudgment interest incurred by the United States Environmental Protection Agency at the Laurel Stone Church Road Superfund Site located near Laurel in Franklin County, Indiana. Under the proposed consent decree, Franklin County, Indiana, Gale Hornsby, and Juanita Hornsby will pay a total of $350,000 to the Hazardous Substance Superfund. This amount was determined based on the Hornsbys' ability to pay a judgment as calculated by a Department of Justice financial analyst, and the County's ability to pay a judgment as calculated by an independent financial analyst hired by the Department of Justice. In addition, under the proposed consent decree Daniel Rapier and Naomi Rapier will pay a total of $45,000 to the Hazardous Substance Superfund. The Department of Justice will accept comments relating to the proposed consent decree for a period of thirty (30) days from the date of publication of this notice. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and mailed either electronically to
